This cut represents the "Liebotschaner" Lager Beer.
Made by the Genesee Brewing Co. of Rochester, N. Y. It is made from the best German Hops and Canada Malt, and bottled in white Flint glass, at the brewery, under the supervision of those who make it. It is absolutely pure.
In the spring Lager needs a light tonic, and this Lager appears to be better adapted to such cases than the heavier Ales and Porters.

Pol's Wonderland Theater.
The beautiful Creoles are interesting and entertaining great crowds every day and evening in their brilliant spectacular production at the Wonderland. Mr. Foreman and Miss West present a novelty in comedy during which they show some lively and catchy dancing. The novelty which this clever pair introduce is not the least attractive on a bill that fairly bristles with clever specialties. The two Clippers, the Franks, Miss Minnie Belle, Willis and Halpin, John and Nellie McCarthy, and Barry and Hannon, also distinguish themselves. Next week Lew Dockstader, America's monarch minstrel.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.
The successful author and actor of dramas of low life, Mr. Edward Harrison, will appear at the Hyperion to-night in "The Major" with his New York company, which includes many favorites, such as Mrs. Annie Yeomans, Charles F. McCarthy, John Wild, Harry Fisher, Fattie Moore, Emma Pollock and others.
Many changes have been made in the play other than the merely textual alterations needed to make the application of its wit and humor more timely. After the raid on the dark policy shop a corridor in the Pompei prison is shown and here the major secures the release of the prisoners, generously dividing the amount of their fines with the detective who arrested them.
The next scene is on the roof of Mr. Pop's fireworks factory, where the darkies who had escaped arrest had found, as it were, a harbor of refuge. Presently there is an explosion and twelve darkies are blown into the sky like rockets and here the major secures the release of the prisoners, generously dividing the amount of their fines with the detective who arrested them.

Grand Opera House.
Donnelly and Girard will present "The Rainmakers" at the Grand opera house to-night and during the remainder of the week. An exchange says: The success which followed the appearance of Donnelly and Girard in New York in "The Rainmakers" at the Park theater in January and February last is still the talk of the Rialto. The comedy was new to the New York stage, but after the opening night, the great theater was crowded to the doors at every performance, and on dozens of evenings standing room could not be had after 8:30 o'clock. The bright, catchy songs, the brilliant music and absolutely novel specialties were a revelation to the patrons of the season in the metropolis, beyond peradventure of a doubt. In the company are such artists as Miss Isabelle Urquhart, the most beautiful woman on the American stage; Annie Martell, a petite and versatile comedienne; the Sisters Harmon, four in number and direct from London, this their first appearance in America; the Leigh sisters Thomas LeMack, Thomas Lewis, Arthur Rigby, Arthur K. Deagan, Henry Daus, W. H. Traver and other equally capable people.
"Rainmakers" matinee on Saturday, "The Viking," a comic opera by Estelle Clayton and the late E. L. Darling, will be produced for the first time on any stage at the Grand opera house on Monday, May 6, and will be performed the two nights following, with a matinee on Wednesday, May 8, for the benefit of the Actors Fund of America. The opera is built upon a spectacular scale and has more than one hundred people in the cast, not to mention a team of reindeer that haul the prima donna. The production will be one of the most notable that New Haven has seen this season.
